

Early Spring/Summer 2008 Trends: It's a Laid Back Season

For the first time in many seasons, I can say kids won't dress like little hippies, or NASCAR drivers or even Ukrainian stacking dolls; this spring children will wear clothing without obvious references to earlier eras, which means they'll simply look like well dressed versions of themselves. Here, a look at some of the early spring trends viewed at Children's Club and Bubble New York (held July 29-31, 2007).

TRENDS:

GIRLS

Ses Petites Mains takes a fresh look at red, white and blue at Bubble.