

*SES PETITES MAINS TINY CHIC CLOTHING

Homebase: San Francisco, CA

DESIGNER: Beth Miles

Sizes: 12 months to 6 years; Wholesale prices: $19-$56

In their words: "Creating modern pieces that celebrate the innate beauty of children with quiet details and expressive fabrics are what Ses Petites Mains continually strives to accomplish."

This new collection is more traditional and ladylike than the other lines at Bubble, making it perfect for boutiques with a funky as well as classic seeking clientele. The shapes are innovative and flattering, with lots of layering options. The rich rose, deep pink and red color palette is offset by navy and denim. Swirly skirts and a ruffle here and there make the garments total kiddy catnip.

Favorites: I love the way the short "Dandio" jacket ties in the back, and the way the "Suzy" boatneck's stripes blend with the "Astrid" pant's plaid. If that's too much pattern, Miles offers plenty of rich solids.
